Diversity has a name – Germany's Magic Cities Welcome to Creative Germany

TOURIST BOARDS
& EMBASSIES

Germany is traditionally known as 'the country of poets and philosophers,' as its history is rich with art and innovations. Famous painters, writers, inventors and architects have always called Germany home. Today, these visionaries are followed by the next generation of aspiring artists and innovative projects. Constructions such as the Allianz Arena in Munich and Stuttgart's new Porsche Museum are shaping cityscapes throughout the country, and districts like Kreuzberg in Berlin and the Schanze in Hamburg have become exciting, fashionable areas that merit a visit during any city break. Germany's Magic Cities have everything your heart could desire: a relaxing atmosphere, fascinating history and delicious regional cuisine. Moreover, they are urban centers of creativity with new attractions and endless cultural highlights. The Magic Cities of Germany – Berlin, Cologne, Dresden, Düsseldorf, Frankfurt, Hamburg, Hannover, Leipzig, Munich and Stuttgart – offer a sheer variety that is truly inspiring.

Korea
Be Inspired

Bride's welcoming, Kim June Gun, 19th Century

Communal dining. The more the merrier.

Koreans are generous by nature. They understand the meaning of togetherness. When it's time to eat, the whole community gathers together to share in the bounty of nature. And at every Korean table, there's always room for one more special guest. You.

Bibimbap: A spicy mixed rice and vegetable dish. A harmonious balance between freshness and flavours.
